

I am against this petition and believe Morse testing should remain an amateur licensing requirement